Military Living® Return Policy

Military Living® Publications offers a 30-day return window on all book purchases. Customer will pay return shipping cost unless the book is damaged upon receipt or it is otherwise our error. Books must be returned in like new, resalable condition. We reserve the right to not accept or to issue only a partial refund. Our team of Military Spouses and Retirees have stood behind our products and your experiences for the last 55 years.

Important Information

Customers with a shipping address in Florida, Virginia or Washington must add sales tax to book portion of the order. Virginia Tax Rate 6%, Washington State Tax Rate 6.5% + local city/county sales tax rate, Florida 6% state tax rate + local tax rate. Orders without sales tax or shipping added will either be returned unprocessed or will have a balance due upon shipping. Prices are subject to change without notice.

All Books are shipped by USPS Priority Mail. If the product was damaged in shipment, please notify us immediately, and send pictures if possible for a replacement. Shipping costs are calculated based on weight. Shipping cost will increase if purchasing more than 3 books in one order.
